

ZEITRAUM: 2016 – 2018

ZIELE: The University of Salzburg and its Israeli partners are aiming to build a highly qualified, motivated and dedicated community of specialists within their respective domains of expertise, contributing to progress in research, education, administration and society. As for students, the planned BA-MA-PhD mobility project will change and widen students' perspectives from a young democracy under permanent threat of war experiences in a multi-cultural environment and equip them with up-to-date theoretical and methodological tools.
